MASS MEETING IN BELOIT.
Republican Camp Fires Burning Brightly.
THOUSANDS OF FREEMEN IN COUNCIL.

There was an enthusiastic and multitudinous gathering of republicans at Beloit yesterday. The spirit of the Fremont campaign was fully aroused, and though in mere numbers the demonstration fell short of the gathering four years ago, the same zeal was apparent, and the result of the glorious campaign is foreshadowed by that pending contest.
About nine o'clock in the morning, the masses of people which had centered here commenced a movement towards the place of meeting. A large overland procession, under the charge of the marshals appointed by the republican club of this city, and assisted by marshals chosen by various delegations from the surrounding towns, commenced its onward march. In this procession, were delegations from the towns of Milton, Harmony, Fulton, and the city of Janesville, the Milton delegation accompanied by a band, in a wagon drawn by six horses, and bearing a very fine banner—Harmony and others towns also displayed banners. On the route, delegations united from La Prairie, Clinton and Turtle.
While this procession was wending its way over the prairie, a large train of railroad cars was carrying its hundreds to the same destination. The train from the west, well loaded with live republicans from Madison, Whitewater and intermediate points, arrived at nine o'clock, and additional cars were added here with about eighty of the Wide Awake club and a large number of our citizens. Leaving at half-past nine o'clock, the train, consisting of eight passenger and two baggage cars, united at Monroe with a train of seven cars from Monroe, Brodhead, Footville and other points on that line of the road, and arrived at Beloit with seventeen cars compactly filled. The cannon belonging to this city occupied a platform car, and was served with good effect as the train sped on its way. At the Beloit depot, this delegation was received by the Beloit Wide Awakes, and escorted to the business part of the city.
Almost simultaneously with this train, a train of seven passenger and six platform cars, decorated with banners and green boughs, and bringing a company of eighty Wide Awakes from Delevan came into the city.
A general procession was now formed, and marched through the principal streets of the city under the charge of El. Northrup, as chief marshal, aided by eight assistants. This procession, which included the overland train from Janesville, was long and imposing, enlivened by the inspiring strains of several bands of music, a profusion of banners, wags, decorated with green boughs, and other paraphernalia of a public celebration. We are unable to name distinctly each delegation, but we recognized from this county good representations and some of them large, from Milton, Harmony, La Prairie, Fulton, Clinton and Turtle. A company of horsemen from Shoopere, escorted by a martial band, made a fine appearance. Delegations were present from Green and Walworth counties in this state, and Winnebago and Stephenson in Illinois. The republicans of Shirland, Ill., had a long wagon drawn by seven yoke of oxen, and a company of rail splitters working out the material which once employed the hands of our candidate for President. Several six horse teams, drawing full loads of men and women, graced the procession. Among the organized bands, we noticed those from Rockford, Brodhead, Whitewater, Beloit, Janesville, and Elkhorn with its elegant chariot drawn by six grey horses. The Wide Awakes from Delevan, Beloit and Janesville, were conspicuous in the line and excited unqualified admiration for their drill and military appearance. Each club was preceded by a band, and the banners affixed to the staffs of the torches gave, in the distance, a vivid appearance of nodding flames.

At half-past twelve, a special train from Freeport arrived, with three passenger, six platform and two baggage cars, bringing among the zealous republicans of northern Illinois, a company of about eighty Wide Awakes from Freeport and a brass band. This new accession was received by the Beloit Wide Awakes and escorted to the speaking ground, where the general procession had preceded them.

After an organization (which we are not able to give, as we were not present), an adjournment was had for dinner. On assembling again in the afternoon, the speaking commenced. Three stands had been erected to divide and accommodate the crowd. From these stands Messrs. B. G. Noble, Carl Schurz, Senator Doolittle, Gov. Randall, Hoos, C. C. Washburn, L. P. Harvey, M. P. Sweet (of Freeport), E. D. Holt (of Milwaukee), Dr. Lieb, editor of the Chicago Rail-Splitter, Prof. Daniels, and perhaps others whose names we did not procure, addressed large audiences. The speech of Dr. Lieb we have the authority of the Shoopere postmaster for saying was excellent, and if a former democratic route agent can't tell some wholesome truths of democratic misrule and corruption, and an existing postmaster appreciate them, we do not know who can. The remarks of Mr. Schurz were suggested by the brazen clasp of the Chicago Times that Douglas had made every foot of new territory free, and that Douglas is the true champion of free labor. The falsehood and impudence of this claim was exposed in a masterly manner. All the other speakers acquitted themselves well, some of them unusually so, and the many truths and appeals made by them will strengthen the faith and increase the zeal of republicans, while the democrats who heard them will carry a load of conviction they cannot easily shake off, if it does not result in the desertion of a party which has so long betrayed the best interests of the country and will hereafter, if longer entrusted with power, utterly sacrifice free institutions to the spread of human slavery.

Letters were read from Senators Seward and Sumner, the former announcing an intention to visit Wisconsin sometime during the present season.
In the evening the Wide Awakes from Freeport, Delevan, Beloit and Janesville made a brilliant display. After forming into line and lighting their torches, they were marched to the speaking ground and very happily addressed by Senator Doolittle and Mr. Schurz. These addresses concluded, they returned to the city, and until 11 o'clock Beloit was the theatre of a gay and animated scene more easily imagined than described.
The Janesville club received many high commendations. Soon after 9 o'clock, the special evening train came in, bringing an accession to the numbers of the club and the elegant banner prepared for it. In numbers it previously excelled any other club, and notwithstanding the short time which had been devoted to drill, its marching and evolutions were at least fully equal to either of the other clubs on parade. During the marching, the burning of a large number of Roman candles surprised the spectators by its suddenness and gave the effect of a display of fire-works to the otherwise brilliant exhibition. Our Beloit friends came to the conclusion that their visit to Janesville last week had produced a class of pupils that excelled their teachers, and returned with a liberal hand the attentions of which they had been the recipients here.
At half-past 11 o'clock the last return train took its departure from the city, and closed a day that left all pleased with its work and influences. The arrangements for the meeting had been well made and carried out; the attendance was very large, in view of the duties incident upon the opening harvest, and numerous other meetings and excursions that have called for the time, labor and money of the spirit in adjoining sections of country; the people manifested no diminution of effort on the part of the invincible phalanx that guards the citadel of republicanism in Wisconsin, and an assurance of a prouder victory than ever yet was won in "old Rock" is professed to co-workers throughout the state.

Gen. Pillow of Tenn, who issued a flaming manifesto some weeks ago in favor of Douglas, announces through the Nashville Union and American that he will support "those statesmen whom he knew so intimately in Mexico, and whose course he has since known so well in their high positions in the councils of the nation, John C. Breckinridge and Joe Lane."
The Texas (Marshall) Republican, the most influential democratic paper in the state outside of Galveston, says:
"The effort made by the friends of Douglas to get up a demonstration in his favor in the southern states has turned out a miserable failure, and has demonstrated conclusively that even with the prestige of a party nomination he could not obtain the electoral vote of a single southern state."
The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says:
"It had the pleasure of conversing to day with many prominent gentlemen from the north, and their universal testimony was that every free state, except, perhaps, California, will go for Lincoln. The republican committee have daily the most satisfactory reports, and are more and more confident every day."
The Chicago Journal says:
"There is a wonderful political regeneration going on down in 'Egypt.' Those Douglasites who are counting on carrying this state for Douglas will be astonished at the large republican vote in that section that will swell the majority of Lincoln and Yates in November.
The republicans have never taken hold of 'Egypt' in earnest, as they are doing now. Every county and precinct is being organized, light is being shed abroad and the fruits are now maturing.
Lincoln will get a hundred or more votes in many of those southern precincts where, in 1858, for lack of organization, he didn't get one.
The Central City Courier, the democratic organ of Onondaga county, N. Y., at Syracuse, has taken down the Douglas and Johnson ticket and run up that of Breckinridge and Lane. It is said that other papers in the state will follow its example.
When is the next 'Flag' to be issued.

THE NEW BRECKINRIDGE PAPER.
The public were somewhat surprised by the appearance in this city yesterday of a new paper called the "National Flag," devoted to the interests of the Breckinridge wing of the democratic party. It is edited and published by an association of gentlemen who have heretofore been prominent friends of Douglas in Janesville, and leaders of the democratic party in the state. When we state that James Armstrong, late editor of the Times of this city, and Isaac Woodie, a prominent politician of the Douglas branch of the democratic party, are among its corps of editors, and Daniel C. Brown and J. Moriarity, publishers, the public will be considerably astonished, as we confess we were when we first saw the paper and learned who were its editors and publishers.
There must be some deep game going on among the democrats in relation to the future control of the party in Wisconsin. Its movements are as dark as they are secret and desperate, and doubtless have for their object the selling out of the Douglas men of this state, and their transfer, like fat bullocks in the market, to be slaughtered by the administration and the adherents of the Breckinridge faction. We say it is astonishing to see such men as Woodie and Armstrong, who have heretofore been "crazy for Douglas," suddenly desert him and come out in such a decided manner for the corrupt convention which succeeded from the national convention for the express purpose of defeating Douglas for the presidency. How it is possible for these men to justify their course to the democracy of this state, we cannot imagine. We leave them to perform that difficult task for themselves.
There is another fact connected with this matter which is as remarkable as the sudden defection of the leaders before alluded to, and that is the enthusiasm with which the movement is seconded by the mass of the democratic party in this city. Instead of producing discord and confusion among them, as would naturally have been expected, when Douglas has so large a preponderance in the party, the people support their new organ with unusual unanimity and liberality. Notwithstanding a large edition of the paper was published, the whole was disposed of as rapidly as they could be printed, and such was the anxiety to obtain it that twenty-five cents a copy was paid for several numbers. This shows that in this region, and we know not but the feeling extends throughout the state, the support of Douglas is but a hollow pretense, both on the part of the leaders and the masses of the Douglas party; and if this is so, we may soon expect a general stampede on their part into Breckinridge ranks. The Madison Patriot and the Milwaukee News sought to attend to this alarming state of things immediately, and as the Douglas men have no organ here, we feel that we perform no more than a neighborly duty when we warn them that there is treason abroad in the ranks of the Douglas men too soon. In order to be equally fair, and not to show partiality to either of the "wings," we would say to the Madison Argus that there is an excellent chance here to "scoop out" the Douglas party, which is now in a highly demoralized condition, and growing weaker every day. If the Argus wants to make a grand haul of the right kind of material with which to reconstruct the "spoils party," an immediate effort in Janesville would undoubtedly result successfully. The Douglas leaders here have evidently come to the conclusion that the "little giant" will have nothing with which to play them for their disinterested labors, and hence they are ready to desert him by scores.

It is generally the case that when men have once resolved to betray their country or their party, they are in a hurry to consummate the deed. In this instance the persons engaged in issuing the "National Flag" could not wait until they had fitted up their own office, but, taking advantage of the absence of the heads from the Gazette office at the republican meeting at Beloit, gained admittance in some way, and proceeded to use our printing materials, paper, ink, &c., in a manner which shows, having determined to cut loose from Douglas, that the desperate course of their mental faculties did not permit them to distinguish very clearly between right and wrong in the use of our property. We think they must have been partially insane, as all men, who use what does not belong to them, are said to be by a certain class of phrenologists. We perceive that their phrenologists they acknowledge the receipt of a bottle of glue from one of their patrons, and this may have added to the confusion of their minds in relation to the rights of property.
We are glad to get possession of our own again with no more damage done than the use of our materials. They have the grace at least, while abusing us with our own types, to thank us for them; and considering the mental disquietudes under which they suffer in consequence of the terrible condition of the democracy in general, we extend to them pardon for what they have done, hoping, but not expecting that they will be equally successful in obtaining forgiveness from the outraged Douglas party whom they have so heartlessly deserted.

THE DEMAND FOR BREADSTUFFS.—The advices from Europe justify us in expecting a very large demand for breadstuffs during the coming year. The season has been so wet and cold in England that a deficiency of at least four million quarters is already estimated as certain, while the supplies of the United Kingdom of Great Britain is less by about one million six hundred thousand quarters than last year at the same date. Private letters from the highest banking authorities confirm the statements of the public press, and predict a large demand for American produce. Nor is this impending scarcity confined to the British Islands. The continent is not likely to have any surplus. All accounts agree that the crops throughout central Europe have been a failure, and the severity of the weather. On the other hand, Providence has favored the harvest. Our crops in the southwest are considered beyond the reach of a crowning harvest. The grain of the country is usually which human intelligence can foresee, and as a natural consequence, the surplus of the old crop is rapidly consumed eastward. Indeed, much of it is already on its way to meet the foreign demand—Baltimore, Sept. 10th.

WASHINGTON, July 14.
All the statesmen representing that Mr. Bright of Indiana, had agreed to support or countenance the Douglas ticket, indirectly or otherwise, are unfounded. Information has been received here and from direct sources, stating that he and his friends have organized a Breckinridge electoral ticket, which will be immediately put in the field, and that they intend to run it at all hazards, and without the least purpose of compromise.
Senator Don Gabriel Fossard, the Spanish Minister, will leave in a few days on a visit to Senator Seward, with whom he will spend some time by special invitation.
A Washington despatch says arrangements are being made for a California party express on the Butterfield route.
Late advices from Peru state that our relations with that country were approaching a crisis. The United States ship of war, Albatross, had arrived at Callao with despatches for our minister, instructing him to peremptorily demand a settlement of the claims growing out of the seizure of the ships Lizzie Thompson and Georgiana, and provisions for a joint commission for the settlement of all outstanding claims of our citizens. Some delay has, however, occurred in consequence of the resignation of the Peruvian minister to our government, and it is not probable that our government would be compelled to resort to force before the demands would be complied with. In case of non-compliance with the demands of our government, the American minister was instructed to close the legation. The Peruvian minister at Washington has been notified that unless his government accepts the ultimatum of the government of the United States his passport will be furnished him.
The difficulty between France and Peru has been finally adjusted, though not until a bombardment of national democrats, composed of many leading politicians of this city, was held at the Union House, Union Square, for the purpose of organizing a central committee favorable to the election of Douglas and Johnson.

A large democratic meeting was held here last night. Speeches were made by Gov. Flournoy of Ark., and Maj. Ira Root, Douglas and Johnson endorsed.
A well attended republican meeting was held in court house square last night. It was addressed by H. Q. Hayes.
Preparations are in progress for a large Breckinridge meeting to-night.
VAN BUREN, Ark., July 13.
The weather for the last few days has been intensely hot in this vicinity. Yesterday the thermometer stood at 108 in the shade. The heat was almost suffocating. The river is very low, and fordable at almost every point. There is prospect of rain this evening, which is much needed. Thirty-two guns were fired this evening in honor of the completion of the telegraph in this city.
MILWAUKEE, July 14.
The market for wheat to-day has been unsettled, a series of large lots were at figures, and sales below quotations. Three lots were sold, at 1 1/2, 1 1/2, 1 1/2, all No. 1. Flour unchanged.
A CREDIBLE CHANGE.—Just after the Baltimore convention, the people of Gridley station, on the Logansport, Peoria & Burlington railroad ran up a flag bearing the name of "H. G. Stephens A. Douglas" for president. A few days ago the inscription was removed, and now the flag flutters in the breeze the names of Lincoln and Hamlin. The people of Gridley have no idea in contributing to the election of Breckinridge by giving their support to Douglas—Baltimore, Sept. 10th.

Go to thy rest, my child,
Go to thy dreamless bed;
Gentle and meek and mild,
With blessings on thy head,
Froth roses in thy hand,
Buds on thy pillow laid,
Drooping from thy laughing face,
Where flowers so quickly fade,
Because thy smile was bright,
Thy lips and eyes so fair,
Because thy cradleside,
Was such a fond delight—
Shut thou with weak embrace,
Thy heavenly mother's arms!
Thy last sweet sleep thy train,

Notice.—There will be a union meeting of all the Sabbath Schools of the city at half past 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, at the Baptist Church. Peter Sinclair, of Edinburgh, Scotland, will address the children. Mr. Sinclair will also address the parents and friends of the schools in the evening, commencing at a quarter before 8 o'clock. The Children's Friend.

Messrs. Editors.—Last Sabbath, May 13th, was a glorious day to the Sunday school children of Freeport. We had a union meeting of all the schools in the afternoon, at the First Presbyterian church, at which time they were favored with an address from Peter Sinclair, of Edinburgh, Scotland. There were from five to six hundred children present in a body, and the whole mass were perfectly enraptured. Mr. Sinclair's address far surpassed anything we ever heard before, in its adaptation to interest and instruct the young in the great principles of temperance and virtue. His warning against vice in all its forms, and so presented as never to be forgotten. His power over the youthful mind is wonderful. He lectured before a union meeting of the various churches on Sabbath evening; also before the public schools of the city, in connection with his beautiful temperance panorama, on Monday afternoon, and to the people in the evening.

His paintings are truly a most splendid work of art, and his accompanying lecture on Monday night to the people of this city, where men are poisoned in death, and sent to hell by law, came like the forked lightnings and the hot and terrible bolts of God's never slumbering justice. We are confident that Mr. Sinclair's visit to this city will result in great good. We expect to organize a children's "Band of Hope," and an adults' Temperance Society upon the principle of temperatism. Never will the Sabbath school children of Freeport forget Mr. Sinclair, and never will the good instructions he gave them be effaced from the memories. I believe millions of children will arise up one day from both continents and call him blessed. I most cheerfully commend him to the patronage of every city or town he may visit in the west. N. F. RAVLIN.
Freeport, May 17, 1880.

Mr. Sinclair will exhibit his paintings and lecture before the children of the city Monday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, also deliver a lecture before the citizens generally, Monday evening.

For the Daily Gazette.
Anniversary at Milton.

The sixth anniversary exercises of Milton Academy were held on the afternoon of the 10th inst., and were numerously attended. For three hours and a half the students held the audience in close attention. It is the general opinion that the occasion surpassed in interest all others of the kind ever witnessed in the place. The students had prepared their pieces with considerable care, and, as a general thing, presented them with much animation and force.

Eight students graduated in the normal and English departments, some of whom enter immediately upon the profession of teaching, and the rest remain in the academy longer, studying in the classical department. The class give promise of usefulness and distinction. The following are their names: Gentlemen—J. M. Jones, Boston, N. Y.; A. H. Lewis, Berlin; J. Longfield, Magnolia; O. P. B. Wright, Emerald Grove; O. U. Whitford, Leonardville, N. Y.; S. S. Wallihan, Evansville, Ind.; H. E. Hulse, Johnston; M. L. Whitaker, Janesville.

At the close the principal stated that the school had, during the past year, received its largest number of pupils, and that they had made the greatest proficiency in their studies.

Besides the senior class, which graduated, there were in attendance 1 resident graduate, 33 in the middle class, 99 in the junior class, 119 in the preparatory class, and 13 in the model class, making in all 273 students.

As will be seen, this institution is steadily increasing in popularity, and with its permanent board of teachers and increased facilities for giving extensive and thorough instruction in the English studies, mathematics, natural sciences, ancient and modern languages, history, mental and political sciences, etc., it is hoped that it will continue to occupy its prominent position as a leading academy in the state. Dr. L. C.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATION.—We find our time so much occupied with the proceedings of the meeting at Beloit yesterday, and interruption from the "outside barbarians" who invaded our office in our absence yesterday, and who seem yet unwilling to leave us in peaceable possession of our property and premises, that we are unable to prepare a report of the Sabbath school excursion to Madison.

BELL RINGING.—A bell weighing 500 lbs. was raised this afternoon at engine house No. 2. It is designed as an alarm bell in case of fire, and was purchased for the company by the citizens whose property needs the protection of a prompt alarm as well as efficient labor when endangered.

Wide-Awake Meeting.—A meeting of the Janesville Wide-Awake Club for drill and business purposes will be held at the Court Room, Monday evening, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

A. B. McLEAN, Captain.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

ADRIAN.—The census just taken shows the population of Adrian, Mich., to be 7,023. It is the third city in the state, Grand Rapids, with over 8,000, being the second to Detroit.

Governor Seward puts Lincoln's majority in New York at 70,000. DISCONTINUED.—The Adkinson Standard has been discontinued for want of patronage, and the material has been purchased by John W. Blake, of Jefferson, who proposes to establish a good republican paper at that place.

PARDONED.—On Monday last, says the Waupun Times, the commissioner received from the Governor a full and unconditional pardon for Edward Leubey, the noted Monk of La Trappe, who was sentenced at the September term of the Columbia county circuit court, in 1853.

SAD CALAMITY.—Last Sunday, Norman Lewis, of the town of Burke, Dane county, fell from the wagon on his return from church, and dislocated his spine. He was immediately paralyzed in all parts of his body, but survived till Tuesday evening, when he died. He was an aged and highly respected citizen of that town, and lived with the family of Mr. Proctor.

Wilkes' Spirit of the Times says that the Heenan and Sayers sparring bout has not turned out as well, pecuniarily, as was expected. Heenan is coming home without much money, and will not find as large a sum awaiting him from friendly subscriptions as was expected.

The London Times, of the 22d June, makes a prophecy of famine. The season has been not only in England, but throughout western Europe, unpropitious.

THE ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH.—The steamer Golden Plover, which arrived at St. Johns, N. F., on the 4th inst., from Galway, brought as a passenger, Mr. Varley, the electrician of the Atlantic Telegraph Company. His purpose is to raise the end of the Atlantic Cable, and remove its landing place, as also to remedy defects found in the cable itself.

The schooner Clotilde, with 124 Africans on board, arrived in Mobile Bay on the 9th. A steambot immediately took the negroes up the river. That is the way the south respects the laws of the United States.

AN ANCIENT FLAME.—The lady, sixty years of age, who eloped from Buffalo, arrived in Albany, where she was taken possession of by her friends and sent home. When do the "years of discretion" come along in the feminine branch of mankind.

We notice a communication in the last Mining Gazette from John Sawson, Esq., Superintendent of Cliff Mine, Lake Superior, stating that two masses of copper, weighing respectively 5 tons 1,425 lbs., and 3 tons 1,410 lbs., have been shipped from that mine by the steamer Iron City, this spring. A pamphlet with the heading, "Mac Mahon, King of Ireland," is published in Paris and exposed in all the book sellers' windows.

A mol of Garibaldi's is quoted by the papers: "I came to Sicily, where I beat an army without a general; I am now going to Rome, to beat a general without an army."

The German population in this country is estimated at 7,500,000.

A partridge nest has been found in Virginia with seventy-eight eggs in it. Did one hen lay them all or not?

A patriotic insane man, named Berry, hung himself in Dakota county, Minn., a week or ten days ago, by tying an American flag about his neck.

Two boys, Jacob Easterly, aged twelve, and Henry Kneusel, aged fourteen, quarreled at Petersburg, Virginia, a day or two since, when the former drew a knife and stabbed the latter through the heart, killing him instantly.

Gen. Sam. Lahm, delegate to the Charleston convention from Stark county, Ohio, was met at the Canton depot by an undertaker, who, with new hearse, its ostentatious plumes all nodding in agony of woe, was there at the hour to receive the remains.

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safe and cheap protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men of the principal cities of the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be secured well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

White duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been the result of the most successful and successful of our countrymen, we would cordially invite all our citizens to call on the office, south-west corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.

A. W. KELLGROD, Secretary.
Messrs. Hixley & Harlow, produce dealers, and O. H. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this company, and will also be happy to give information as to the condition thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.

F., on the 4th inst., from Galway, brought as a passenger, Mr. Varley, the electrician of the Atlantic Telegraph Company. His purpose is to raise the end of the Atlantic Cable, and remove its landing place, as also to remedy and defects found in the cable itself.

THE schooner Clotilde, with 124 Africans on board, arrived in Mobile Bay on the 9th. A steambot immediately took the negroes up the river. This is the way the south respects the laws of the United States.

AN ANCIENT FLAME.—The lady, sixty years of age, who eloped from Buffalo, arrived in Albany, where she was taken possession of by her friends and sent home. When the "years of discretion" come along in the feminine branch of mankind.

We notice a communication in the last Mining Gazette from John Slawson, Esq., Superintendent of Cliff Mine, Lake Superior, stating that two masses of copper, weighing respectively 5 tons 1,125 lbs. and 5 tons 1,410 lbs., have been shipped from that mine by the steamer Iron City, this spring.

A pauper with the heading, "Mac Mahon, King of Ireland," is published in Paris and exposed in all the book sellers windows.

A note of Garibaldi's is quoted by the papers: "I came to Sicily, where I beat an army without a general; I am now going to Rome, to beat a general without an army."

The German population in this country is estimated at 7,500,000.

A partridge nest has been found in Virginia, with seventy-eight eggs in it. Did one hen lay them all or not?

A patriotic insane man, named Berry, hung himself in Dakota county, Minn., a week or ten days ago, by tying an American flag about his neck.

Two boys, Jacob Easterly, aged twelve, and Henry Kneisel, aged fourteen, quarreled at Petersburg, Virginia, a day or two since, when the former drew a knife and stabbed the latter through the heart, killing him instantly.

Gen. Sam. Lahm, delegate to the Charleston, Baltimore, Breckinridge, Douglas convention from Stark county, Ohio, was met at the Canton depot by AN UNDERTAKER, who, with new harness, its ostrich plumes all nodding in agony of woe, was there at the hour to receive the remains.

Life Insurance.—Those desiring this useful and cheapest protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While duty demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented," we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

NOTICE.—There will be a union meeting of all the Sabbath Schools of the city at half past 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, at the Baptist Church. Peter Sinclair, of Edinburgh, Scotland, will address the children. Mr. Sinclair will also address the parents and friends of the schools in the evening, commencing at a quarter before 8 o'clock.

The Children's Friend.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—Last Sabbath, May 13th, was a glorious day to the Sunday school children of Freeport. We had a union meeting of all the schools in the afternoon, at the First Presbyterian church, at which time they were favored with an address by Peter Sinclair, of Edinburgh, Scotland. There were from five to six hundred children present in a body, and the whole mass were perfectly enraptured. Mr. Sinclair's address far surpassed anything we ever heard before, in its adaptation to interest and instruct the young in the great principles of temperance and virtue. His warning against vice in all its forms, were so presented as never to be forgotten. His prayer over the youthful mind was wonderful. He lectured before a union meeting of the various churches on Sabbath evening; also before the public schools of the city, in connection with his beautiful temperance panorama, on Monday afternoon, and to the people in the evening.

His paintings are truly a most splendid work of art, and his accompanying lecture on Monday night to the people of this city, where men are poisoned to death and sent to jail by law, make like them, lightnings and the hot and terrible bolts of God's utter slumbering justice. We are confident that Mr. Sinclair's visit to this city will result in good.

We expect to organize a children's "Band of Hope," and an adults' Temperance Society upon the principle of teetotalism. Never will the Sabbath school children of Freeport forget Mr. Sinclair, and never will the good instructions he gave be effaced from their memories. I believe millions of children will arise up one day from both continents and call him blessed. I most cheerfully commend him to the patronage of every city or town he may visit in the west.

N. F. RAYLIN.

Freeport, May 17, 1860.

Mr. Sinclair will exhibit his paintings and lecture before the children of the city Monday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, also deliver a lecture before the citizens generally, Monday evening.

Anniversary at Milton.

The sixth anniversary exercises of Milton Academy were held on the afternoon of the 10th inst., and were numerously attended. For three hours and a half the students held the audience in close attention. It is the general opinion that the occasion surpassed in interest all others of the kind ever witnessed in the place. The students had prepared their pieces with considerable care, and as a general thing, presented them with much animation and force.

Eight students graduated in the normal and English departments, some of whom enter immediately upon the profession of teaching, and the rest remain in the academy longer, studying in the classical department. The class give promise of usefulness and distinction. The following are their names: Gentlemen—J. M. Jones, Boston, N. Y.; A. H. Lewis, Berlin; J. Longfield, Magnolia; O. P. B. Wright, Emerald Grove; O. U. Whitford, Leonardsville, N. Y.; S. S. Wallihan, Evansville, Ladies—H. E. Hulse, Johnstown; M. L. Whitaker, Janesville.

At the close the principal stated that the school had, during the past year, received its largest number of pupils, and that they had made the greatest proficiency in their studies.

Besides the senior class, which graduated, there were in attendance 1 resident graduate, 33 in the middle class, 99 in the junior class, 119 in the preparatory class, and 13 in the model class, making in all 273 students.

As will be seen, this institution is steadily increasing in popularity, and with its permanent board of teachers and increased facilities for giving extensive and thorough instruction in the English studies, mathematics, natural sciences, ancient and modern languages, history, mental and political sciences, etc., it is hoped that it will continue to occupy its prominent position as a leading academy in the state. DE LAC.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CELEBRATION.—We find our time so much occupied with the proceedings of the meeting at Beloit yesterday, and interruption from the "outside barbarians" who invaded our office in our absence yesterday, and who seem yet unwilling to leave us in peaceable possession of our property and premises, that we are unable to prepare a report of the Sabbath school excursion to Madison.

BELL RINGING.—A bell weighing 500 lbs. was raised this afternoon at an engine house No. 2. It is designed as an alarm bell in case of fire, and was purchased for the company by the citizens whose property needs the protection of a prompt alarm as well as efficient labor when endangered.

WINE-AWAKE MEETING.—A meeting of the Janesville Wine-Awake Club for drill and business purposes will be held at the Court Room, Monday evening, at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

DISCONTINUED.—The Atkinson Standard has been discontinued for want of patronage, and the material has been purchased by John W. Blake, of Jefferson, who proposes to establish a good republican paper at that place.

PAROXYSM.—On Monday last, says the Waupun Times, the commissioner received from the Governor a full and unconditional pardon for Edward Leasby, the noted Monk of La Trappe, who was sentenced at the September term of the Columbia county circuit court, in 1853.

SAD CALAMITY.—Last Sunday, Norman Lewis, of the town of Burke, Dane county, fell from the wagon on his return from church, and dislocated his spine. He was immediately paralyzed in all parts of his body, but survived till Tuesday evening, when he died. He was an aged and highly respected citizen of that town, and lived with the family of Mr. Proctor.
